

Lee W. Tuveson
Magellan Health Services VP, Finance

Lee W. Tuveson has been employed by Magellan Health Services for the past ten years and currently serves as the Vice-President of Finance for the Employer Solutions Division. In his current role, Tuveson is responsible for all business management activities within the division including financial reporting, budgeting and underwriting. Prior to joining Magellan, Tuveson was employed by McDonnell Douglas for more than eight years in a variety of financial positions, including Internal Audit, Financial Planning and Contracts and Pricing.

Tuveson received his MBA from Washington University in St. Louis and his undergraduate degree in Finance and Economics from the University of Missouri. He spent over six years on active and reserve duty in the U.S. Army.

When not working, Tuveson enjoys a variety of activities including golf, skiing and reading. He has two teenage children and has been married for over eighteen years.