

Joseph M. Cheneler

MICROSOFT DELIVERY MANAGER

Joe Cheneler is the Microsoft Delivery Manager responsible for Services delivering Microsoft's Digital Transformation vision with a cloud-first strategy and building best-in-class platforms and productivity services Joint and Combatant Command Department of Defense customers.

Prior to joining Microsoft, Joe served in the Navy for 26 years as a Surface Warfare Officer and an Intelligence Officer, retiring as a Navy Captain. He has a proven track record at implementation, integration of enterprise-wide C4I systems, space-based satellite solutions, and other efforts across multiple Defense Department, interagency organizations, and international partners. He has led joint service and multi-national units in operations in the Middle East and Pacific regions.

Joe is a graduate of the U.S. Naval Academy, holds a post-graduate degree, and is a graduate of the U.S. Naval War College.

Joe and his wife, live in Annandale Virginia and have three children. Their daughter teaches elementary school special education, one son is in the Navy, and one son is in the Coast Guard.